

HELP SUPPORT REFUGEE EDUCATION

Based out of Karenni Refugee Camp #1, in Mae Hong Son Province, Thailand, the KSDC works to address nearly 70 years of human rights abuses, widespread discrimination of ethnic minorities, and wholesale destruction of environmental systems throughout Karenni State and Myanmar.

KARENNISDC.ORG

The KSDC empowers new generations of Karenni advocates with the knowledge and skills needed to promote non-violent social movements demanding respect for human and indigenous rights, democratic governance, and the preservation of the Karenni environment.

OUR FOCUS AREAS

HUMAN RIGHTS

Teaching international human rights and how to advocate for indigenous rights in Myanmar

DEMOCRACY

Training young advocates to challenge oppressive systems of governance and promote a federal state

ENVIRONMENT

Demonstrating sustainable agriculture techniques through our local farm and promoting resource preservation
